7. Detail

- 7.1 Street trading means the selling, exposing or offering for sale any article in a street. The term 'street' includes any road, footway or other area to which the public have access without payment (this can include private land). Staffordshire Moorlands District Council ("the Council") has adopted Schedule 4 of the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982 ("the 1982 Act") which means that consent is required before trading in certain places.
- 7.2 For the purpose of clarification the Committee may wish to note that the following are not street trading for the purposes of this Policy: a) trading by a person acting as a pedlar under the authority of a pedlar's certificate granted under the Pedlars Act 1871; b) anything done in a market or fair the right to hold which was acquired by virtue of a grant (including a presumed grant) or acquired or established by virtue of an enactment or order; c) trading in a trunk road picnic area provided by the Secretary of State under section 112 of the Highways Act 1980; d) trading as a news vendor; e) trading which – (i) is carried on at premises used as a shop or in a street adjoining premises so used and as part of the business of the shop; (ii) is carried on at premises used as a shop or in a street adjoining premises so used and as part of the business of the shop; f) selling things, or offering or exposing them for sale, as a roundsman; g) the use for trading under Part VIIA of the highways Act 1980 of an object or structure placed on, in or over a highway; h) the operation of facilities for recreation or refreshment under Part VIIA of the highways Act 1980; i) the doing of anything authorised by regulations made under section 5 of the Police, Factories, etc. (Miscellaneous Provisions Act 1916.). The reference to trading as a news vendor in (d) is a reference to trading where: (a) the only articles sold or exposed or offered for sale are newspapers or periodicals; and (b) they are sold or exposed or offered for sale without a stall or receptacle for them or with a stall or receptacle for them which does not: (i) exceed one metre in length or width or two metres in height; (ii) occupy a ground area exceeding 0.25 square metres; or (iii) stand on the carriageway of a street.

- 7.3 A consultation exercise was undertaken on a revised Street Trading Policy. A copy of the proposed revised Policy was made available to view on the Staffordshire Moorlands Council website, in addition a hard copy was available at the One Stop Shop reception in leek. All existing street trading vendors and event organisers were individually consulted on the proposals.
- 7.4 The Council has received one response to the consultation exercise, which is attached at appendix 2. The revised Policy, attached at Appendix 1, has a proposed amendment in red, in response to the consultation response received by the Council. The revised Policy is proposed for recommendation for approval to Full Council.
